EP Scheme of Learning

Year 8 – Term 2 Charities

Intent – Rational

This module will focus on the work of Charities in Christianity and Islam. Students will be able to explain the concept of charity and the reasons why people give to Charities. As part of this module, students will look at the work of individual charities such as Christian Aid and Muslim Aid. They will also use the National Lottery as an example of a national organisation set up to support good causes. This will also involve looking at positive and negative stories associated with the National Lottery. Islamic and Christianity beliefs on the concepts of gambling will be assessed during this section of work. Students will also be able to explain the Islamic concept of Zakah and be able to compare this to Christian practices. At the end of the unit, students will devise their own charity based on the learning in the unit, justify their choice and evaluate according to a given set of criteria.
