7. ONLINE CHECKS

In accordance with our statutory obligations under Keeping Children Safe in Education the Trust is required to conduct an online search as part of our due diligence on shortlisted candidates. This may help identify any incidents or issues that have happened, and are publicly available online, which the Trust might want to explore with you at interview.

We carry out these searches manually. To assist with the search being as accurate as possible, please set out which social media platforms you use and the handles you use on each site:

If you would like to inform us of anything that might come to light when we perform this search, please outline the details below:

8. PROTECTION OF CHILDREN

The Trust is required under law and guidance to check the criminal background of all employees. Decisions to appoint will be subject to consideration of an enhanced disclosure, including a Barred List check, from the Disclosure and Barring Service. Because of the nature of the work for which you are applying, this post is exempt from the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (Exceptions) Order 1975 (as amended in 2013 and 2020). The amendments to the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (Exceptions) Order 1975 (2013 and 2020) provides that when applying for certain jobs and activities, certain convictions and cautions are considered 'protected'. This means that they do not need to be disclosed to employers, and if they are disclosed, employers cannot take them into account.

Guidance about whether a conviction or caution should be disclosed can be found on the Ministry of Justice website, which can be accessed here:

If shortlisted for an interview you will be required to disclose to us information about any:

- adult cautions (simple or conditional);
- unspent conditional cautions;
- unspent convictions in a Court of Law; and
- spent convictions that are not protected as defined by the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (Exceptions) Order 1975 (Amendment) (England and Wales) Order 2020

so that a police check can be carried out if you are offered an appointment.

If you are shortlisted for an interview, in line with Keeping Children Safe in Education we will also ask you to complete a self-declaration form prior to interview to provide any relevant information which may make you unsuitable to work with children. For example, whether you are included on the barred list, prohibited from teaching, prohibited from taking part in the management of an independent school, known to the police and children's social care or disqualified from providing childcare and any relevant overseas information.

If you are subsequently employed by the Trust and it is found that you failed to disclose any relevant previous convictions, cautions or other relevant information as defined above, this could result in dismissal, or disciplinary action being taken by the Trust. During the course of your employment with the Trust, should you be arrested by the police you are obliged to notify the Executive Headteacher/Head of School of this immediately (even if de-arrested or all charges dropped). Failure to do so could result in disciplinary action being taken which could result in dismissal. All information will be treated in confidence and will only be considered in relation to any application for posts for which the exemption order applies.

It is an offence for anyone to apply for a role if they are barred from engaging in regulated activity relevant to children.

We are committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children, young people and vulnerable adults and we expect all staff and volunteers to share this commitment.
